About Thrissur

Thrissur, often referred to as the "Cultural Capital of Kerala," is a vibrant city located in the southwestern part of India. Nestled in the heart of Kerala, Thrissur is renowned for its rich cultural heritage, traditional art forms, and historical significance. The city is adorned with magnificent temples, including the iconic Vadakkunnathan Temple, which is a classic example of Kerala's traditional architecture.

Thrissur hosts the world-famous Thrissur Pooram, an annual temple festival that showcases a grand spectacle of elephants, fireworks, and traditional music, attracting visitors from far and wide. Beyond its cultural allure, Thrissur boasts lush landscapes, serene backwaters, and a thriving agricultural scene. The city seamlessly blends the old and the new, with bustling markets, educational institutions, and modern infrastructure coexisting alongside ancient traditions, making it a fascinating destination for those seeking a glimpse into the diverse tapestry of Kerala's culture and history.

The Vadakkunnathan Temple is an ancient Hindu temple dedicated to Shiva in Thrissur, in the Thrissur district of Kerala, India. The temple is a classical example of the architectural style of Kerala and has one monumental tower on each of the four sides in addition to a koothambalam.

Athirapilly Falls is situated in Athirapilly Panchayat in Chalakudy Taluk of Thrissur District in Kerala, India on the Chalakudy River, which originates from the upper reaches of the Western Ghats at the entrance to the Sholayar ranges. It is the largest waterfall in Kerala, which stands tall at 81.5 feet.

Kerala Kalamandalam, a deemed-to-be-University of Art and Culture by the Government of India, is a major centre for learning Indian performing arts, especially those that developed in the country's southern states, with special emphasis on those from Kerala.

The Guruvayur Temple is a Hindu temple dedicated to Guruvayurappan, a form of Vishnu, but popularly known as Krishna, located in the town of Guruvayur in Kerala, India. It is one of the most important places of worship for Hindus in Kerala and Tamil Nadu and is often referred to as Bhuloka Vaikuntha.
